Chronic Ulcers and Catarrh.

Mrs. Christian Zelle, aged strty-three years, of Carondelet, St. Louis, Missouri, had a chronic ulcer on her leg which had been running for forty-three years. To use her own language, she had "tried all the doctors," but without perceptible benefit. Two of the most noted of this city advised her, as the only alternative from death, to have the leg amputated below the knee. She was troubled with an intolerable itching sensation, which only gave way to a distracting pain, which made death her daily wish. She could not sleep or rest. On March 21, this year, she commenced using Dr. Hartman's PERUNA, and to-day the leg is entirely healed, and the thankful old lady gays she has slept more during the last three months than she did in the previous forty-three years.

Miss Alice Brady, of East St. Louis, Illinois, suffered from catarrh ophthalmia for five years. On April 27, she began treatment under Dr. Hartman. For a year before she was a patient of two of the best known oculists of this city, but they signally failed to help her. After one month under Dr. Hartman and his Peruna, her eyes have almost entirely healed, and, according to her own statement, he has done more for her in this short space of time than the oculists did in the previous whole year. PERUNA, Chronic Ulcers and Catarrh.

ment, he has done more for her in this short space of time than the ocullats did in the previous whole year. PERUNA, of course, did it.

Miss Annie Baker, First Avenue, Milwaukee, writes: "I take great pleasure in recommending PERUNA. For years I have suifered from Ashma. I was induced to try PERUNA. It promptly relieved the paroxysms, and its continued use renders their recurrence less and less frequent. I am confident it will cure me completely."

completely."

Walker Brothers, druggists, Batavia, O., write: "Dr. S. B. HARTMAN, Columbus, O., Dear Sir: Some two weeks ago I had a very peculiar case, and after a few questions were answered, I came to the conclusion it was catarrh of the stomach of clusion it was catarrh of the stomach of the worst kind, of ten years' standing. The patient had consulted every physician far and near. I persuaded her to try your PERUNA and MANALIN. She had been having spaams every three or four days, and the fifth dose kept them off, and they have not returned since."

W. M. Griffith, Ashland, Ky., writes: "The large chronic ulcers of fifteen months' standing, are entirely healed. The swelling, pain and itching have all subsided, the leg is healed, and I am perfectly well. PERUNA is a wonderful remedy."

His converts in high life, while not so distinguished as those of the great English churchman, are retrainly as numerous. As a pulpit orator he has no superior in the American atholic Church, excepting Archbishop Ryan. The Bishop also figures prominently in the literature of the day. Be ides the able "Life of Archbishop Spalding" he is the author of numerous essays contributed to the leading magazines and has, moreover, written some tolerable potry. In last month's North American Review he had a powerful article in refutation of Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton's attach in Christianity and proved in a very consusive way that the progress of the Christian religion has always been synonomous has been more active in the university novement than Bishop Spalding, and now that it is practically realized it is only itting that he should receive the rector-hip for which he is so eminently qualiability rather than by any great intellectional attainments. He has a peculiar talent for reconciling factions and it was due to this, more than to anything else, that he was made Bishop of Boston. Before his appointment the clergy of the diocese were divided, would not work together and agreed only in opposing the Bishop. Now all dissensions are healed and the Archbishop is supported in all his undertakings.

was announced. He came, however, and for a while kept quiet, for the blessing. But this time, asked by a young minister, it was lengthened to an unusual extent—was indeed quite a prayer. The child kept his head bowed for some time, but finally his resolution gave way. Suddenty he popped his head up and oried out, "All eyes open, ready or not." The blessing was hurried to a close in the midst of suppressed laughter, that out of respect for the guest and occasion, immediately found some other cause for outlet.

I was struck with a reproof I once received from a little girl four years of age. I was telling of the brownies, and she was very much interested. I told her how they would play tricks upon those who failed to do their duty. "that," I added, "is what is gone with the toothbrush your cousin It. has lost. She has done something she ought not to have done, and the Brownies have taken it." I glanced at the young lady and we langhed, but the little one did not see the joke. She looked at me very seriously with her wide open, pretty eyes. "You ought not to say that, for they might take your toothbrush."
